Fund manager commentary

31 December 2023

Alongside falling bond yields, equities also began to climb from late October as investor risk appetite improved. The FTSE World Index advanced 6.9% in the fourth quarter (in sterling), taking the annual return for 2023 to 17.2%. The US was one of the best-performing markets – the S&P 500 Index gained 11.7% (in US dollars) to end the year up 26.3%. European stockmarkets registered healthy gains, amid excitement about potential rate cuts. However, the UK trailed the broader global market. Share prices in Asia Pacific ex Japan and emerging markets also underperformed, mainly on account of weakness in China. From a sector perspective, real estate was one of the best performers, along with information technology, while energy stocks had the weakest performance. The US dollar weakened against major currencies including sterling after the Federal Reserve signalled it would start to cut rates this year. Oil prices fell 22% despite production cuts and concerns about potential supply disruptions resulting from the conflict in the Middle East.

The M&G Treasury & Investment Office (T&IO) outlook is cautious as much uncertainty remains.

PruFund Growth (US Dollar) Fund

PruFund Protected Growth (US Dollar) Fund

The PruFund Growth (Dollar) performance figures shown below are intended only to demonstrate performance history of the fund over the period shown. The PruFund funds performance figures are based on a representative fund charge of 0.65% p.a. and further costs. The actual fund charge can vary by product. They take no account of product or advice charges. The application of these charges and further costs will impact the overall performance. Please also note that our charges and further costs may vary in the future and may be higher than they are now.

Funds' Performance is based upon the movement of the daily price and is shown as the total return in the fund's currency of denomination with gross income invested. Due to changes in exchange rates the value of your investment, as well as the money you take from it, can go down as well as up, so you might get back less than you put in.
